Grade 12 English - First Week Assignment

Welcome to 12th grade! I am excited to be your teacher, and I am looking forward to an exciting and academically rewarding year. Please don't hesitate to contact me if you feel overwhelmed by all that is involved with your senior year. The proverbial light is at the end of the proverbial tunnel.

During your first week of school, you will need to complete this packet and be prepared to submit it to me on our first class meeting on either September 9 or 10 (depending on your site).

I can't wait to get to know you, and to begin discovering and enjoying great works of British literature together. Let's get started!

Assignments:

1. Select a grade-appropriate novel that interests you. Please use the attached suggested reading list if you need help deciding.
2. Write one paragraph listing the title and author of your book, and providing your rationale for selecting your book. What motivated you to select this specific book?
3. Complete your "Getting to Know You" essay.
4. Read the short story provided in the packet ("The Monkey's Paw" by W.W. Jacobs) and complete the response questions.
5. Choose 10 vocabulary words with definitions and include them in your notebook.
6. Review class syllabus/course outline, and bring all required materials to the first class.

Required Materials:

- 1 1/2 inch binder
- loose leaf notebook paper (please do not use perforated paper that you have to tear out)
- dividers
- pencils and pens
- highlighter
- your self-selected novel
- a good attitude (or not-so-good, but at least a willingness to learn)

Happy Learning!
